

PARLIAMENTARY ASSEMBLY OF THE MEDITERRANEAN
ASSEMBLEE PARLEMENTAIRE DE LA MEDITERRANEE
الجمعية البرلمانية للبحر الأبيض المتوسط

3rd Standing Committee on Dialogue among Civilizations and on Human Rights

Special Task Force on Dialogue of Cultures and Religions

Building on Dialogue

Rapporteur: Sónia Sanfona (Portugal)

Resolution unanimously adopted during the IVth Plenary Session

On 24 October 2009 in Istanbul

- Given that the Mediterranean is a region of continuously evolving and intense cultural, economic, political, social interaction and exchange between peoples of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds based on a common history and shared democratic values;
- considering the Mediterranean region is part of a global society that reflects an ever-growing degree of diversity in our societies, the traditional approaches to multiculturalism based around the co-existence of differentiated majorities and minorities with differentiated rights and responsibilities are no longer adequate to manage cultural diversity;
- considering that Mediterranean society could benefit from a new approach to managing cultural diversity based on intercultural and inter-religious dialogue, which means shared fundamental values, respect for common heritage and cultural diversity, and equal dignity for every individual;
- considering that the lack of intercultural and inter-religious dialogue can lead to cultural stereotyping, a climate of mutual suspicion, tension and intolerance that facilitates the victimisation and exclusion of religious and ethnic minorities;
- considering that poor knowledge, awareness and understanding of each others' cultures and religions is a major obstacles to integration;
- considering that intercultural and inter-religious dialogue plays a fundamental role in strengthening participative democracy for all Mediterranean peoples;
- considering that PAM promotes and pluralistic and open vision of Mediterranean society;
- considering that PAM supports the inclusion of all residents in Mediterranean society and respect for their human rights;
- considering that PAM is committed to developing an open society among peoples of the Mediterranean without discrimination, intolerance or xenophobia,

The Parliamentary Assembly of the Mediterranean, agrees to:

- a) Complete the Special Task Force questionnaire about the national experiences and policies of PAM Countries in promoting dialogue and understanding among cultures and religions and draw up a comparative report on the same subject;
- b) Continue to implement the terms of the Fez Program;
- c) Sign a Commitment Letter whereby each delegation undertakes to bring the issue of intercultural and inter-religious dialogue before its respective youth parliaments and/or call for a full debate on intercultural and inter-religious dialogue before its national parliaments;
- d) Advocate a new approach to intercultural and inter-religious diversity through Intercultural Dialogue, by targeting in particular policy-makers and administrators, to educators and the media, and to civil-society organisations, including migrant and religious communities, youth organisations and the social partners to raise their awareness about intercultural and inter-religious dialogue;
- e) To call on national governments to step up their actions to combat discrimination and exclusion by adopting legislation to counter racial and religious hatred and intolerance;
- f) To call on national governments to adopt policies to ensure that equal opportunities policies are not only adopted but also implemented;
- g) Stresses that followers of any religion shall be free to access their holy sites and underlines the importance of the conservation of such sites for the collective patrimony;
- h) To support activities at international level for the setting up of a World Observatory on academic curricular;
- i) To work in collaboration with the Euromed university network;
- j) To study in more depth the role of religions in the Balkans.
